

Peace & tranquillity bordering on flowers

Just a couple of updates from last month's editorial.

It wonderful that Paul Tritton, whose lovely garden is to be found next to and overlooking the wonderful Bromwell Leaze itself, has joined the other nine Open Gardeners. That makes ten gardens for the rest of the World to visit on 14 June!

1	Lord & Lady Rayleigh	`Terling Place`
2	David & Vanessa Dennis	`Meriden` New Road, Terling
3	Sylvia & Roy Rich	`Elmhurst` Fairstead
4	Wendy Morrisey	`Gorecroft` Gambles Green
5	Noel & Lorna Larwill	`Oakrights Hall` Terling
6	Irene & Dennis Dawson	`Viner Cottages` Owls Hill Terling
7	Alison & Paul Harrison	`Terling Fields` Terling
8	Gary Cousins	Hull Lane Terling
9	Anne Fitzgerald	`Takliwa` Gambles Green
10	Paul Tritton	`Bromwell Leaze`

I would also like to take this opportunity to pay tribute and to thank to Mr Reg Hunt and his wife Linda who have once again and generously offered to pay for the hire cost of the village hall toilets for the day. Without access to this facility we could not organise such community events.

Also grateful thanks to Robert and Val Eveleigh who have volunteered to help “in any way we can” on the 14 June. If anyone else would like to help – in any way however minor, it all helps. Just let me know.

Finally news that Terling’s newest business, the Butterfly Art & Craft Studio’s located in what was once known (and to some probably will always be!) as the Old Scout Hut in Flacks Green, will be helping to actively sponsor the Open Gardens Day. As part of the Open Gardens event, Brian and Julie will be organising art demonstration – adding a fascinating new dimension to what promises to be a lovely day of culture, peace and tranquillity.

Next month I really will confirm what’s going on in each of the gardens – and what the final timetable for the day looks like. Meanwhile and for now, I have pressing engagements to fulfil! And even more important the Parish News editor has an imminent deadline to meet!

Meanwhile, anyone who would like to help make this event another and even greater community success or just discuss details, can contact me on 233 473 or >harrison.panda@gmail.com<

Thank you everyone for your kindness and generosity

Paul Harrison
